Business Notices.

AT HALF PRICE.

COATS. OVERCOATS, PANTS, AND VESTS.

The excellent Stock of an extensive Wholesale Broadway New-York!

Below original post of manafacture,

6 S

At Evans', and Fulton-it, between Geld and Cliff-sts.

18 S

18 S Super black French cloth Frock Coats, lined throughout with eatin, and well worth #25.

Fine block cloth Frock Coats, lined with sik.

Very good black cloth Frock Coats, wall made and Mixed Suits & &c. 12 6. At Evans', Nos. 66 and 63 Fulton-st.

WINTER CLOTHING-The cheapest, the best emortment, newest stock, best styles, &c., &c.
F. B. Baldwin.
Nos. 70 and 72 Bowers.

SHERTS! SHIRTS! SHIRTS!

GEO. M. TRACY, Agent.

A REMARKABLE ECLIPSE.-Eclipses used to portend calamities, but the present one amora better times. KNOX from his observatory of fashian on the cenus of Brankway and Fution st. has, in his Fail style of gentlements HAYS projected for achiev that extinguishes all rival productions by its superior grace and comfort is being as easy to the head as no old glove, and setting off the face like a flattering posturalisation and the results as a consideration of HAYS and CAYS, infiltery and civilian, is unequaled for despitess, excellence and beauty.

Superler Food for Children, Invalids, and others,

BRIDGEWATER PAINT, tested 11 years, water

LAPIES' FANS $1, $2, AND $3 EACH.
At G. C. ALLEN'S, No. 415 Broadway,
One door below Canal-

New York Daily Tribune FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1861.

Our friends will please not send us Postage Stamps of the old sudstion, as the time for exchanging them for the new issue has expired, and they are, to us, worthless. TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Re public can be taken of Aponymous Comm.
Whatever is intended for fuseration must be and by the came and address of the writer—and expublication, but as a gueranty for his good faith.

We carnot undertake to return rejected Communications. All business letters for this office should be addressed "Tun Taincox." New-Tork.

The Littlejohn Libel Suit.

A verbatim report of the trial of the suit of Lix-Summing up of Counsel, &c. Our subscribers who desire secure and preserve a full report of this remarkable trial, will do well to procore our pamphlat edition. Price 10 cents.

To Lecturers.

We propose to publi h shartly, for general information, Hat of those who would like to give public lectures during the coming Winter. In order to make this list as complete as po-sible, we shall be giad to receive the address of any passes whose came would properly belong it such a list. These who choose may also inform us upon what subjects they propose evening, it appears that the fund for the rehef of the families of volunteers is getting pretty low. An attempt was made in the Council ings of the Councils. Every word of that Veto any reform will be effected; but the Mayor's our city:

Message is no less sound and cogent for that.

It is not a covery inducement from the vital portion of a lately in and a covery inducement from the vital portion of a lately in an analysis of the color.

believed that unwavering Honesty would pay!

be prohibited, was, on metion of Mr. Genet, lie was aware of its character; but a majority count of the slipperyness of the pavement, and been impelled to conclude that it was somecreated by the immense travel, upon their The Herald bad so asserted, and that they had the Union cause, he would be amply repaid the Custom-House. The gentleman with the goods, will prove very serious, while, from the never seen the charge contradicted; and they with Freedom. be protty effectually put a stop to. The more tions from Lloyd Garrison, Wendell Phillips, tions by slaves; yet the rebels scould apprehend clously invoiced goods in his warehouse, would rational, as well as humane, course to pursue or some one else who never even pretended to them. We do not propose the arming of those only have need to issue his manifesto disavowwould be to groove the smooth trap-blocks, and be a Republican. Thus well-meaning men are who come over to us, though some would-not ing all allegiance to the Government, and poor do not agree with them in politics. We regret give the horses a firm foothold, without ruin- set against each other, and made to hate and in idle parade-arm themselves. We propose Mr. Attorney must, under the direction of the that some Republicans oppose them, but their great thoroughfare.

to do their share of Jury duty. This case is the fullest exertion of its power? Do the business. A few months of this would make a jers to use these means of defense very sparis marked contrast with the result of similar rebels "cat us with lenity on a single point? majority of them very glad to save what they ingly; for should they once get the force

Congress to make up the Jury lists himself for when unable longer to plander safely, to sink, burn Congress to make up the July and July and destroy! How do you expect to triumph to draw the panels, the difference may be accounted for. If such a law is necessary for from the start, and we are to put forth but counted for. It such more is it required in half our strength until we shall have deter-

Warsaw, in Missouri, will perhaps be grati- ors should be issued: fied to learn that, with a portion of his army, I. We have never held nor taught that Emanhe occupied Springfield last Sunday. He was cipation is the rightful object of this war on anything and to stick at nothing; but for the received there with every demonstration of the part of the Unionists, much less that any honor of the Fathers of this Republic, and for joy. The Stars and Stripes were everywhere such issue should be made up as Emancipation the respect which is due to a great history, displayed, and men, women, and children or Separation. On the contrary, we hold that we wish that these gentlemen of the long robe greeted the National troops with cheers and the rebels should be summoned to lay down could have found it convenient to have adopted the waving of handkerchiefs. Gen. Fremont their arms within a reasonable period and subpush on after Price with the same vigor which And, if—the prescribed period having expired—ter, between the patriots of 76 and the pirates has marked his movements hitherto. Price is they still persisted in their treason, we bold of '61. from Springfield.

and 40 or 50 wounded. If additional proof means of saving its own life. of Rebels, this statement would furnish it.

Major Frank White, who led in the recapture of Lexington a short time ago, and who ast before the taking of Springfield was made a prisoner by the Rebels, was rescued from his guard of 20 by a company of the Green County Home Guards. Altogether, affairs seem to be rather vigorously conducted in Missouri. We learn from a Wheeling paper that Gen.

Kelly, who took Romney recently, captured 400 or 500 prisoners, 200 horses, 3 wagon loads of new rifles, 3 cannon, and a great quantity of provisions and forage. He holds the place with

The Rebels are strengthening their batteries on the Potomac, and are daily placing in position new guns of long range. On Wednesday the batteries at Shipping Point threw three shells at a detachment of the Sickles brigade. which, however, did no damage. It is said TERSONN VS. GRUELLEY is published in pamphiet form at THE TRIBUNE Office. It contain the Pleas, Opening and Argupoint with which we could shell the Rebels, ments of Connecl. Rulings of the Court, the entire Testimony.

We publish in our telegraphic column the report of the Military Board, which has been engaged at Washington in examining officers of volunteers, giving the names of a number of those who have been discharged.

Gen. Scott and his staff will be in New-York on Saturday, and that in the course of the next week the General will retire from his By the debate in the Common Council last position, shortly after sailing for Europe.

THE VITAL QUESTION.

Those who profess to believe and those who Board to reduce the rates of relief afforded; avow their disbelief that Slavery can be pre- wages and are very coarsely fed and clad. yer's license, went further. They went to the safely assume so much. It will probably be might have achieved a re-election by the aid of the safely assume so much. but, being strenuously resisted, it did not preserved while the Union is restored, alike agree They are told that we will kill them if we are jurisdiction. They did in their orations what Constitutional restrictions rather than Constitutional res vail. Measures were taken to hasten the per- that the attitude and conduct of the Governfection of the allotment system, under which it ment with respect to Slavery must determine to Cuba, &c., &c. Our National attitude, our stripped the gowns from the backs of the upon that system which gives to a class certain Union War Senators, one of them a Republication of the allotment system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system which gives to a class certain upon that system is heped that our soldiers may be led to habits the result of the War for the Union. It is equivocal speech, our unequivocal silence, of economy, and much suffering be prevented therefore most important that the whole subscience, by the Constitution, Judge Nelson is assumes the right to make "niggers" work for County officers and Members of Assembly in the counterpart of the War for the Union. It is equivocal speech, our unequivocal silence, and flung their wigs in their faces. But a Because, by the Constitution, Judge Nelson is ject be carefully considered—that the public be National decree of Emancipation would make as much, for certain purposes, a Judge in nothing. Mayor Wood last evening sent to the Board step be taken blindly or without a full cominto fearing and hating us no longer. A he is samply Mr. Nelson, with no more power uable and cherished lives, by many desolated in violation of good faith, but vote for every of Aldermes a Veto on the ordinance proposing prehension of its probable as well as necessary hundred would hereafter seek to reach our to hold a court here than there, and, in fact, hearth-stones, by the expenditure of many Union candidate, unless there be one whom to employ The World to advertise the proceed- consequences. Above all, it is essential that lines or camps where one now does. And with no power to hold a court anywhere. bundreds of millions of dollars, by the creation with no power to hold a court anywhere. no misunderstanding be propagated or chertheir unmistakable anxiety and agitation Message is the solemn truth, if Fernando Wood ished, and that each of us know precisely is its author. Our City pays a great deal too what position he combats and what is mainmuch for Advertising and is badly served after tained by those with whom 'he acts. As a all, because there is no pretense of employing specimen of the misapprehensions systematithose journals which have most circulation; on eally diffused by The Herald, countenanced the contrary, the most needy, or greedy, or by some journals which make pretensions to servile, are preferred; and the result is a candor and decency, we quote the following reshameful waste. We have no suspicion that solve of a recent Democratic Ward meeting in

What a Mayor this man might be if he only believed that unwavering Honesty would pay!

In any a covert indexe ment from, the vital portion of a lately triomphant or generation and press, "Give us Emmargation or Speration," index no sympathy with us and we stigmatted to the atterance of traitors at heart, at d we do solemnty protect egainst it, and now and for all time to the unness of current indexe particles as the covert indexe used press. "Give us Emmargation of Speration," indexe used to be unnessed as the covert indexe usent from, the vital portion of a lately triomphant or generation press. "Give us Emmargation of Speration," index on sympathy with us, and use the covert indexe usent from, the vital portion of a lately triomphant or generation. The position of the covert indexe usent from, the vital portion of a lately triomphant or generation. The provides are the covert indexe usent from, the vital portion of a lately triomphant or generation, in the covert indexe usent from the vital portion of a lately triomphant or generation. The covert indexe usent from the co owners that the sprinkling of Broadway may Probably the concocter of this electioneering edopted, by the Board of Aldermen, last even of those who shouted assent to it were not. ing, by a vote of 9 to 2. Doubtless the peti- They had seen it reiterated in the journals to tioners suffer great loss in borseffesh, on ne- which their reading is confined until they had pedestrians find it dangerous to cross for the thing like the truth; and, if asked for evidence purely military; and he could pilot scouts and as well in one case as in the other. It would very much better delegation generally than we same reason; but we submit that if the pro- that the Republicans, or any considerable num- pickets where, from ignorance of the locality, have answered as well if the prisoners had hibition is carried into effect the loss to our ber of them, insisted on the alternative of Dismerchants, from the destructive effects of dust union or Emancipation, they would say that treme danger. And for all he could do for robbing the Mail, or for taking a false oath at same cause, the pleasures of promenading will might undertake to sustain the point by cita- 5. We do not contemplate armed insurrect piffered letters in his trunk, or the mendaing the business and social character of the strive, when there is perhaps no real ground simply to proclaim to rebels and slaves alike Court, issue a not. pros. at once. Nay: we of difference between them. The trial of the twelve privateersmen in the most deprecate Emancipation as an incident or authority and power of the Union may extend, whatever? A plea of alien citizen will be a United States Circuit Court resulted yesterday issue of the War for the Union are most per- to go whither they like and do as they see fit plea substantially to the jurisdiction; and forin a disagreement of the Jury. It is under- sistent in presenting and discussing it. Day after (say) the 1st of January next. And such eign regues will revel unmolested in the fields stood that they stood eight for conviction to by day, they familiarize the public mind with proclamation, we believe, would shift the weight of an industry heretofore deemed illicit. four for acquittal. The Court decided not to the idea; they make Emancipation the turning- of the Four Millions of slaves from the scale. The simple answer to the efforcement nonrenew the trial this torm, which carries the point of the struggle, whether by way of in- of the rebellion into that of the Union. Many cense which we have been exposing is: That stituted in New-York, when the Court has the "tion, and make short work of it." But, for the ensuing year. Finally, the rebels, being we have supposed extreme cases; but we as whole Southern District of the State upon gentlemen! how many Bull Runs, and Lexingthus placed on the defensive, must devote a sort that such conclusions as we have hated which to draw, there would be no in-propriety tons, and Ball's Binds, do you propose to engreat portion of their energies to feeding their at come legitimately from the arguments which in occasionally calling upon the rural districts dure before the Nation shall be impelled to negroes, and would soon find rebellion a losing we have been considering. We advise all law-mined by repeated failures that we cannot sovereignty of the "Confederate States." All succeed without using the other?

Let us state simply and clearly the position Those persons who were so confident that of those who hold that a National decree of most approved style, by several lawyers in our reported to be at Carthage, about 55 miles that the President or General-in-Chief should The main fact relied upon by these ingen-

1. Emancipation will blast the expectations the hopes of the rebels and incited them to superhuman exertions. They have overstrained their resources for months, in the presumption want of Cotton and Markets to interpose in are alike Pro-Slavery. Let us dispel this illunetter espouse the cause of cannibals or pirates. tution of that Power. No prospect of commercial advantage would sient, would compel the slaveholders to flee || Reense? southward with their chattels, or enable those Again: We know very well what is the cally free, therefore loyal.

And here be it noted that the journals which treason, the latter shall be free, so far as the how are you to try an alien for any offence

No person on earth, royal or republican, dithat can be said in that behalf is, that the Davis Republic was fully recognized, after the Gen. Fremont would not go further than Emancipation for the shaves of persistent trait- Circuit Court on Monday last. We have must be prepared to do anything and to say was to remain at Springfield till the arrival of mit to the laws and authority of the Union, on a little more sparing of their comparisons, althe other divisions of his army, when he would penalty of the emancipation of their slaves, ways meant to be complimentary to the lat-issue a Proclamation declaring every slave of a lous gentlemen, and dexterously presented by Later intelligence from Jefferson City states rebel absolved from all obligation to serve that them in many different fashions of brilliancy, that Gen. Sigel has attacked and routed the rebel further, and inviting hun to repair to any was, that the Government of Great Britain taken Gen. Rains prisoner. It is not known his emancipation officially certified and his zer. our captive privateersmen. This is very true.

guard in their recent charge upon the reness Nation they have permuously assaned and at Springfield was 15 killed, 23 wounded, and sought to destroy may now, as an imperative ain had then found herself with a few Amerito such a conclusion. It is quite possible, inat Springheld was 15 killed, 25 wounded, and sought to destroy may now, as an imperative can sailor prisoners, she would have hung them deed quite certain, that Slavery, and the power fesses with great simplicity that it has hap can sailor prisoners, she would have hung them II. But will Emancipation save the Union? and certainly, by the whole law of En directly interfere with that system, must exer- "cial reports have been published" in other were necessary to establish the cravery of this particular and save the Chien particular and sav still owing allegiance to European powers, hitherto exercised, The war, whether we "of man" has unwittingly told the truth of foreign aid which have thus far bueyed up preying upon our commerce; and when we jealous suspicion, even if not to a very active other papers before it reaches its columns; and plead through their lawyers that they were relations. robbing by virtue of commissions from the Slavery, some of us think directly, some indi- thing overruns in its search for lies and that Western Europe would be impelled by "Confederate States of America." Ingenuous rectly, is the real cause of the rebellion, and, scandal. "tars! What are the Confederate States of however large the class is-if it is large-who We regret that The Times, in its annoyance their behalf before Christmas. Meantime, their America?" Ask the British Minister, and he think it is best not to make an end of it, even should so lose its temper as to reflect upon partisans in Europe have upheld their cause on the assumption that Slavery was not involved Ask the French Embassador, and he will rein this contest—that Unionists and Secessionists turn you a like answer! And, if it were in future. Revolutions never go backward, "for publication" is a point on which we, a otherwise, we cannot see how the act of and especially revolutions in thought. Those least, do not choose to offer an opinion. It sion by an authentic, unmistakable act-let us a foreign Government can be pleaded in who have hitherto insisted that we have came to us, as that of Gen. Stone did, pub. make it plain to all Christendem that they are bar-these were substantially all pleas in nothing to do with Slavery, bave come to a lished in the same paper, in regular course fighting to extend and perpetuate Slavery, we bar to the indictment, and not in any very positive and very abiding belief that from the War Department, with anthority to to circumscribe and overthrow it, and no for- way questions for the jury-to a Court owing Slavery has something to do with us, and if it give it to the public through our columns. eign power will come to their relief. In the its very highest allegiance to the United States shall be deemed the part of wisdom to refrain is not for us to decide upon the fitness of offpresent state of European opinion, one might of America, and sworn to support the Consti- from saving ourselves from all further trouble cial reports for publication. On that point the tempt any same ruler of a civilized people to substantially to the learned Justices: There is bly all the more because they do not resort to reject either Gen. Thomas's or Gen. Stone's fer undertake the desperate job. On the other no such crime as Perjury. Your Honors, if radical measures, to provide safeguards against any such reason. hand, the sympathics of all the humane, the you see fit, may violate your oaths of office future difficulty from its preponderating inliberal, the progressive, would gravitate resist- to-morrow. It is all the baseless fabric of a fluence. Even Earl Russell then may understand, Mr. Francis B. Spinola has finally concluded lessly to the side of the Union. And in our vision-it is a sham, a humbug and a delusion and if he can not, there are a great many not to represent his late constituents in our day Public Opinion is one of the Great Powers. -it is the vilest cheat, the merest assumption, common-sense people in England who can, that next Senate-a conclusion wherein he has our 2. Emancipation merely proclaimed on our the sillest pretension, and the weakest usur- the work we have in hand is to put down a hearty concurrence. The People long since as those who have been discharged.

Our Washington correspondent states that claves as an element of rebel strength. Now now holding a Court. We are satisfied that ourselves and the world at large, and that the Four Millions of Slaves in the country are nowhere in the world, save in America, would what we shall do with the monster Slavery, cally than before, to our Republican friends nearly all hard at work to sustain the rebel-such a line of argument have been for a mo- whether to scotch it or kill it, is a subject on Kings County, The faithful and hearly support lion. They grow the Grain and Meat where- ment permitted. What British rebel was ever which we have not yet made up our minds, of the Union nominations is with you a matter on the Confederate armies are subsisted; the allowed to plead the illegality of the Hano. which is nobody's business but our own, but at once of duty and policy. Those nomins Cotton wherewith they are clad; dig the verian succession? What Irish rebet was ever which we shall be careful to so treat that it tions have driven from the field the most profit trenches and build the forts which shelter allowed to plead the unconstitutionality of the will never have it in its power again to get gate legislator that your County ever sent those armies; they work constantly without Union? But these lawyers, with true law- up another rebellion. We think we may very Albany-one who, but for this movement ever enabled to do so-that we will sell them they could not do upon the record. They tional privileges that will hereafter be bestowed your own ranks. You are now sure of two familiarized with all its bearings—so that no all clear. They could, as a class, be deceived Virginia as in New-York—and if this be not so We are learning at the price of many valcompel the rebels to devote ten-fold the time clients by these law-arguments addressed to a of many years, that Slavery, at least, must be Union tickets at least as generally as the Demand effort they now do to watching and hold- jury, and that, too, in the face and eyes of the held in check, and that its sustainers and those ocrats do, and especially that you vote for decisions of the bench, were sworn officers of whom it sustains are capable of again over- Democrats so nominated as readily as for Re-3. Every advance of a Union force upon the very court which they thus insulted! Who whelming us with calamity unless we render publicans. Let us prove that Union is no mers rebel territory, no matter how furtive or tran- shall say that there is any hind to a lawyer's them hereafter powerless of such mischief.

> chattels to escape northward to us. Thus a rule of law in such matters; but who ever little else than a nation of idiots, may reckon fortunate moment to complain of THE RIBrebel region traversed by our armies, as Mis-heard a prisoner indicted for manslaughter upon our learning by heart. souri now is, would very soon become practi-plead that he was guilty of marder, or a man indicted for fornication plead that he only com-4. Every slave thus coming within our lines mitted a rape! This, morally, is what these would bring us that local information for want lawyers did for their sea-thieves. They did of which we have often suffered severely. He not steal the horse—they only fired the stable; would relieve our soldiers of much severe duty they did not pick a traveler's pecket, but only in the way of intrenching, fortifying, &c; he knocked him on the head. Well: suppose the might pitch tests, gather fuel, and cook, thus prisoners had been indicted for treason. Why, increasing the practical strength of each regi- we should still have had the same faded finery had all cordially united in the Union movement, ment, by saving its rank and file for service about the Revolution. It would have answered we might have chosen two Republicans and a Government securities in his pocket, or the that, if the former do not desist from their will go further. Adopt these principles, and case over to April. It is to be hoped that citing to greater efforts Unionists or rebels, would escape to us; these, after furnishing is the Government which the Constitution eswhen it comes up again the venire may be we do not decide. And if they are ever roused information to our Generals, would be set at tablishes as the Government—that is Piracy changed. If it is necessary to go out of the to earnest sympathy with the struggle for the work to lighten the labors and increase the which the laws make Piracy-all more than County of New-York to find a Jury for the Union, they are apt to say in substance, "If efficiency of the Union soldiers. Many more this is idle theory or despicable sophistry. Adtrial of slave-traders, it would appear to be "the rebels persist in their treason, and it be- would be removed far South to insure their mit the arguments of these lawyers, and Gen. equally essential to do so in the case of privateers. At all events, as Juries are now conconquered, then we shall resort to Emancipstrouble and produce less than they consumed der. It may be said that in our illustrations no law, and alas! no lawyers; no codes, no qualify such vote. Senator CONNOLLY was court-houses, no juries to bamboozle, no costs one of the earliest and heartiest in taking his to tax, no sheriffs, no writs, no executions, stand by the Government and Union, and and nothing in this whole world for Mr. Brady while we do not support him for reto do.

A COMMON-SENSE VIEW.

When The London Times insinuates that the Kansas. French Princes have entered the United States service with the astute purpose of founding a Several of our neighbors were yesterday Royal Family in this country, and Earl Russell "severely exercised" in mind that THE TREE understanding of the struggle going on "moralized and helpless condition of among us will be rendered impossible abroad, "armies in Missouri and Kentucky !" towever often her Majesty's Foreign Minister are surprised at it, or rather we should be shall declare that, because we are not carry-surprised at it if we believed it. The Tinu that Gen. Sigel has attacked and routed the rebel further, and inviting hun to repair to any rear-guard of Price at Bolivar, Mo., and of the Union lines or camps in order to have ishing Slavery, therefore we are to return, dignation, its chagrin that THE TRIBUNE taken Gen. Rains prisener. It is not known his emancipation officially certified and his terwhether this report rests on sufficient authority, vices made available to the National cause. In whether this report rests on sufficient authority, vices made available to the National cause. In those political relations which have given rise not only Gen. Thomas's report, but also Gen the vices made available to the National cause. In those political relations which have given rise not only Gen. Thomas's report, but also Gen the vices made available to the National cause. In those political relations which have given rise not only Gen. Thomas's report, but also Gen the vices made available to the National cause. but it is only what may be expected from the other words, we hold that the traitors have acknowledged courage of the officers and men forfeited by their treason whatever constitutional rights of immunity and protection in British supremacy had been in a few months be a wise man; but we are not Times included. The loss on the part of tien. Fremont's body slaveholding they ever possessed, and that the guard in their recent charge upon the rebels Nation they have perfidiously assailed and restored upon this continent, and if Great Brit- appalled at the wisdom that comes The Herald is equally vexed, and for the who are found at sea, under an unknown flag, like it or not, is educating the people to a very News of all sorts is frequently published by catch them, and bring them into Court, they dislike, of that form of society and its political naturally enough; for other newspapers are on > in regard to it by putting it out of the way Departments are quite able to judge for them-The arguments of the learned counsel said altogether, the country will be disposed, proba- selves, and we should not feel at liberty to

And yet the men who sought to save their of a national debt, by the ravished prosperity That lesson, at least, we think Earl Russell, and all who, like him, seem to think we are

CITY SENATORS.

There are good men in nomination as Republican candidates for Senators, whom we should be glad to see elected. But our judgment is that their nomination and support is tending to defeat the election of any Republi- - The Confederate States attempt to estabcans whatever from the city; whereas, if we are now likely to secure.

PHELPS are Republicans, but they are recognized by the community as not mere partisans, but early and zealous supporters of the Union movement, and foce of Legislative jobbing. As such, they will receive hundreds of votes from men of signal intelligence and worth who support seems to us dictated by high considerations of public duty. The Republicans can elect them if they will; we do not see how other Republicans are to be chosen in their other Republicans are to be chosen in their "without any decisive result." Too body districts. And if, as we hear, the friends of at the town ran up the Stars and Stripes of and retired before the rebels, who had rall Mr. W. Smith perempterily voted down a proposal for a conference with the friends of Mr. Manierre, we think they acted unwisely. Let ue rejoice to bear often of similar dashes, even try to differ so kindly that we can easily har- though with no more " decisive result." Three monize hereafter.

WORTH REMEMBERING.

Government in its attidute of resistance of number of Union prisoners. True, the little Secession unto blood, came suddenly before band did not permanently hold the town; they our last Legislature, some of the Democratic left it at nightfall entirely unpursued. members from this city and Kings voted with there has been so much talk about Frement's the Republicane to back the Government with body-guard, as though it were got up fee the whole power of the State, while others show and parade, that we are very glad a thought they would better serve their party by improved the first sight it had of a re voting No. Now, every one of those who force to show what it was made of. trials in Philadelphia. As the Marshal of that Do they not and out their privateers commissional fine p district, we believe, has special authority from sioned to prey on our peaceful commerce, and, Secession and taking shelter once more beneath Othellos would soon be gone. There would be those who voted No seek to explain away or the binnest for when unable longer to plunder safely, to sink, burn the protecting folds of the Stars and Stripes. we gladly bear testimony that his action co this subject was that of a wise and true pe triot. So of his vote to aid the famishing > assumes that the contention here is on one side UNE should have published the report of Gen for empire, and on the other for power, it is Thomas on the affairs of the Western Depart comforting to remember that one of the ele- ment. It was "wholly unfitted and nove ments in the affairs of the world is the com- "designed for publication," The Times says. mon sense of the peorle, and to feel that we Why, then, does The Times copy it? Is our may place some reliance upon that in the pec- respectable neighbor of such easy virtue that ple of Great Britain, as well as among our- it cannot resist doing, even at second hand that which is not fit to be done, and which The danger of our speedily lapsing into the Government never meant should be done a monarchy need-keep none of us awake nor refrain from lending its circulation to en o' nights; nor do we believe that a reasonable tend to the world that " betrayal of the de

the lookout for real intelligence which that

And now we can say, even more emphati the Union candidates are all elected. Do not name, but the symbol of an earnest purpose.

UNE's publication of official documents high that procured in advance of its coten or rice, inasmuch as on the same day it offer two columns of evidence of how much it i behindhand in intelligence of that sort. Under a displayed head of "Important from Mexico" "lish Mexican Relations"-" Correspondence "between Secretary Toombs and Gen. Vi-" daurri"-it publishes this correspondence bedated in July last, the substance of which was Messrs. B. F. MANIERRE and JOHN J. given by us ten days ago. If that paper will turn to its file of THE TRIBUNE, it will find careful synopsis of this correspondence and the facts relating to it, in our editorm page of the 22d ult. Either The Times does no know what news is when it happens to come ncross it, or else it trusted that we gave this so long ago that it was now forgotten, and would pass again for recent inteligence.

> A MISSOURI VICTORY !- Fuller accounts of the attack upon Springfield by Fremont's body-guard turn ent. Is the language of one of Fremont's out-quite. "like Tomptime" "dash into Fairfax, a very b illiant affair; but also, like the

-There are a good many people who would hundred cavalry charged two thousand infastry drawn up in battle array, and swept them his chaff from the field, capturing Springfield . When the question of sustaining the Federal the "result" of their victory and liberating a